DINE 24/7 AT SOKONI RESTAURANT

In keeping with the name Sokoni, which translates to “market place” in Kiswahili, all meals are made from freshly sourced local ingredients prepared in an open kitchen. Inspiration for cuisine is drawn from the diverse history and culture across Kenya. The food is created with seasonal variations to create a fusion of Kenyan and Western cuisine. The restaurant is open 24-hours a day. You may also enjoy 24-hour room service.

IKULU LOUNGE

In keeping with the name Ikulu, which means “the chief’s house” in Kiswahili, this lounge bar welcomes all who cross the threshold to enjoy classic and contemporary liquors. Rustic african interiors and a relaxing vibe make the Ikulu Lounge a go-to venue for a light snack, after-dinner drink or cocktail. The bar features both local and international beers, spirits and wine collections.

CONFERENCES, MEETINGS & EVENTS

The hotel offers personalized packages for conferences, meetings, weddings, receptions, corporate dinners, and trainings. Whether you're hosting a conference for up to 300 delegates, a board meeting or a party, the facility has a selection of function spaces to suit your needs. Our rooftop and ground-floor function spaces offer an incomparable setting for any event. The Ndovu conference hall can host up to 250 pax and the smaller venues, Simba, Twiga and Zebra can host up to 70 pax in various seating arrangements. Our team is ready to assist you at every stage and we'll handle all the details with care and commitment.

WELLNESS

The new Spa offers guests a haven of tranquility. Select from a variety of massages, spa therapies and customized beauty treatments provided in two treatment rooms to relax and rejuvenate. Ready to be cool in the pool? The heated outdoor pool is located in the inner courtyard, an oasis of privacy from the surrounding neighborhood. Swim a lap, relax in the sun, read a book or even get some work done poolside with our free Wi-Fi access.
